General Information

The Master of Arts degree in Asian studies is an interdisciplinary degree offered by designated faculty members in the Departments of Anthropology, Art, Business Administration, Classics and Humanities, Comparative Literature, Economics, Education, English, Geography, History, Linguistics and Oriental Languages, Philosophy, Political Science, Religious Studies, and Sociology. It is administered by the Department of Asia Pacific Studies through a graduate committee consisting of the director, the graduate adviser, and representatives from the several departments.

The program is designed to offer systematic advanced training (a) for those planning to enter educational, business, government, or community service involving Asia Pacific studies; (b) for those in a specific academic discipline who have regional interest in Asia Pacific studies and wish to promote more effective understanding of the cultures, societies, peoples, and social forces at work in the Asia Pacific world; and (c) for those who plan to pursue further graduate study in Asia Pacific studies beyond the Master of Arts degree.

Admission to Graduate Study

In addition to meeting the requirements for admission to the University with classified graduate standing, as described in Part Two of this bulletin, the student must present a Bachelor of Arts degree, as approved by the graduate committee of the Department of Asia Pacific Studies. A student whose preparation is deemed inadequate by the graduate committee will be required to complete specific courses in addition to the minimum of 30 units required for the degree.

Students applying for admission should electronically submit the University application available at <http://www.csumentor.edu>.

The following materials should be submitted as a complete package directly to the Graduate Adviser, Department of Asia Pacific Studies:

- (1) Two sets of official transcripts (in sealed envelopes);
- (2) GRE scores;
- (3) Letters of reference (minimum 3);

- (4) Personal statement;
- (5) TOEFL SCORES (as appropriate);
- (6) Writing sample of recent academic work.

Mail or deliver your complete admissions package to:

Advancement to Candidacy

All students must satisfy the general requirements for advancement to candidacy as described in Part Two of this bulletin. In addition, all students must demonstrate a reading knowledge, at least at the intermediate level, of a relevant foreign language approved by the graduate committee of the Department of Asia Pacific Studies. If Chinese or Japanese is required, the requirement may be fulfilled by completing 16 units of coursework in the particular language, the last four units with a grade of C (2.0) or better.

Specific Requirements for the Master of Arts Degree

(Major Code: 03011)

In addition to meeting the requirements for classified graduate standing and the basic requirements for the Master of Arts degree, as described in Part Two of this bulletin, the student must complete a minimum of 30 units from courses acceptable on master's degree programs, including Asian Studies 600 and 799A. The remaining 24 units to be selected, with departmental approval, from the following list of approved courses. In addition, any other Asian-content courses may be applied with approval of the graduate adviser.

The total program may not include more than 12 units in 500-level courses.

Only Plan A, requiring the thesis, is offered for the Master of Arts degree in Asian studies. A final oral examination on the general field of the thesis must be passed as a requirement for the degree.

All programs will be approved by the graduate committee of the Department of Asia Pacific Studies.
