John R. Adams Professorship in Graduate Interdisciplinary Studies

The Adams Professorship was named in honor of the late John R. Adams, who came to San Diego State University in the 1920s as a professor of humanities. He served for many years as the director of the Humanities Division, and then as the university archivist.

Committee on Graduate Liberal Arts and Sciences

The Master of Arts degree in Liberal Arts and Sciences is administered by its director and advised by the Graduate Liberal Arts and Sciences Committee. Faculty assigned to teach courses in the program are drawn from departments throughout the university.

General Information

The College of Arts and Letters offers a Graduate Interdisciplinary Studies program, leading to a Master of Arts degree in Liberal Arts and Sciences. An alternative approach to graduate education, the program offers coursework that crosses disciplinary boundaries, emphasizing a strong grounding in interdisciplinary methods for problem-solving, while at the same time providing students with a unique opportunity to attain their educational goals through a highly individualized graduate program.

The Graduate Interdisciplinary Studies/Master of Arts in Liberal Arts and Sciences student body is drawn from diverse backgrounds, thus adding to the unique character of the program.

Admission to Graduate Study

In addition to satisfying the requirements for admission to the university with classified graduate standing as described in Part Two of this bulletin, the student seeking admission must: (1) have a grade point average of 3.0 or better on work completed during the last 60 units for the baccalaureate degree and (2) have a score of 1000 or better on the GRE General Test (combined verbal and quantitative). A personal interview with a member of the Graduate Liberal Arts and Sciences Committee is recommended.

Students who do not meet all of the above requirements for admission with classified graduate standing may be admitted with conditional classified graduate standing upon the recommendation of the MALAS director and Graduate Liberal Arts and Sciences Committee. Students so admitted will be advised as to the nature of their deficiency and the time to be allowed to achieve full classified graduate standing.

Students applying for admission should electronically submit the university application available at <http://www.csumentor.edu> along with the $55 application fee.

All applicants must submit admissions materials separately to SDSU Graduate Admissions and to Master of Arts in Liberal Arts and Sciences.

Graduate Admissions

The following materials should be submitted as a complete package directly to:

Graduate Admissions
Enrollment Services
San Diego State University
San Diego, CA 92182-7416

- (1) Official transcripts (in sealed envelopes) from all postsecondary institutions attended;

Note:

- Students who attended SDSU need only submit transcripts for work completed since last attendance.
- Students with international coursework must submit both the official transcript and proof of degree. If documents are in a language other than English, they must be accompanied by a certified English translation.

- (2) GRE scores (<http://www.ets.org>, SDSU institution code 4682);
- (3) TOEFL score, if medium of instruction was in a language other than English (<http://www.ets.org>, SDSU institution code 4682).

Master of Arts in Liberal Arts and Sciences

The following materials should be submitted by November 1 (October 1 for international students) for admission for the spring semester and May 1 for the fall semester to:

Master of Arts in Liberal Arts and Sciences
San Diego State University
5500 Campanile Drive
San Diego, CA 92182-8137

(1) Statement of purpose essay.

Advancement to Candidacy

All students must satisfy the general requirements for advancement to candidacy as described in Part Two of this bulletin. In addition, the students must (1) satisfactorily complete 12 units, with a minimum grade point average of 3.0, including 9 units of core seminars as stipulated (MALAS 600A, 600B, 600C, 600D) and (2) if selecting Plan A, have a thesis or project proposal which has received the approval of the Graduate Liberal Arts and Sciences Committee and its director.

Specific Requirements for the Master of Arts Degree in Liberal Arts and Sciences

(Major Code: 49017)

In addition to meeting the basic requirements for the Master of Arts degree in Liberal Arts and Sciences as described in Part Two of this bulletin, the student must complete a graduate program of at least 30 units in residence at San Diego State University in the MALAS program, of which at least 15 must be in 600- and 700-numbered courses. The total program must include:

1. Nine units of either MALAS 600A, 600B, 600C, or 600D.
2. Three units of MALAS 601.
3. A theme of study composed of 15 units of graduate course work, selected with the approval of the MALAS director which normally must be in at least two of the following areas: social sciences, humanities, natural sciences, and fine arts, with no more than six units in any given discipline. Some 500 level courses may be used in partial fulfillment of this requirement, if approved by the MALAS director. MALAS 798, where applicable, may be included as satisfying 3 of the 15 units for the thematic component. Under special circumstances, and with permission of the MALAS director, a student may compose a theme that deviates in structure from the criteria stipulated above. This theme may include up to a maximum of 12 units of 600A, 600B, 600C, and 600D, in any combination.

Students may select either Plan A or Plan B in consultation with the MALAS director. In addition to meeting the distribution requirements given above, students electing Plan A must complete MALAS 799A (Thesis or Project). Students electing Plan B must complete MALAS 795 (Studies in the Liberal Arts and Sciences) and pass a written comprehensive examination in lieu of the thesis.

All programs must be approved by the MALAS director in consultation with the Graduate Liberal Arts and Sciences Committee.
